D. B. Nicholson, Esq., of Clinton, one of the most popular and successful young attorneys of Eastern North Carolina and the late efficient Asst. Chief Clerk of the House, was in Raleigh yesterday.

The Fountain in Moore Square.

The CHRONICLE does not believe that the fountain in Moore square ought to be removed to Nash square as has been proposed. But we do believe that the Aldermen ought to erect a fountain in Nash square. It would be wrong to make the removal, and an injustice to the parties living near Moore square to remove this fountain which adds to the beauties of what will soon become one of the most attractive of our city parks. The necessity of a fountain in Nash square is apparent to all, and the Board of Aldermen cannot do anything that will detract from the beauty of the city. For its erection, the city is now preparing to day.

The First Baptist Sunday School of Raleigh have a select picnic excursion to Winston-Salem on June 9th. Only members of the school may take tickets of D. T. Johnson at $2.00 a round trip. A limited number of tickets will be sold also at principal stations along the route and information as to price, etc., may be obtained by writing to D. T. Johnson.

Look out saw mill men! Hal. M. Worth offers you a bargain.

A colored woman named Rhoda Alston, living just beyond the Union depot, dropped dead late yesterday afternoon.

It is reported that the little infant stranger who caused so much consternation a few days ago, and who was reported very ill, is better.

The Y. M. C. A. meets this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the lecture room of the First Presbyterian Church. Mr. C. W. Carter will lead.

The CHRONICLE wants to say "Amen" to the suggestion to pull down the unsightly fence around Moore Square and leave it like unto Nash Square.

Today Rev. Dr. L. L. Nash will preach the dedicatory sermon of Grove Hill church on Franklinton circuit, and Rev. B. O. Alred will fill his pulpit.

Rev. T. P. Barclay, D. D., of Fayetteville, will preach the Baccalaureate sermon before the Graduating Class of Peace Institute this morning at eleven o'clock in the Presbyterian church.

In consequence of the illness of Elder Bodenhamer the funeral services of the late Thos. Williams which was to have been held at the Primitive Baptist Church this morning will not take place until further notice.

The Governor has commissioned J. B. Lloyd, of Tarboro, editor of the Farmers Advocate, Capt. of Co. A First Regiment, Jao. W. Charles, 1st Lieut. of Co. A, and has appointed E. P. Oakland, of Northampton county; L. P. McDaniel, of Buncombe county; and E. D. Swann, of Rockingham county as notaries.

We were astonished yesterday to learn that the beautiful fat lambs displayed in front of some of our market stalls were raised near Raleigh. This is a country naturally adapted to the raising of such stock and we are happy to note that Major Tucker, who is successful in anything he undertakes, is raising and putting them on our market.

It is with pleasure that we call attention to the beautiful sketch book just issued by the Green Park Hotel Co., of Blowing Rock, N. C., which gives an account of the delightful resort and celebrated summering point, Blowing Rock, and its vicinity. The company will send this beautiful pamphlet to any one who is seeking a point at which to spend a few pleasant weeks or months this summer.

There was a break at the A. and M. College yesterday, and it was the breaking of a sky light that caused it. The boys that broke the sky light were told that they must pay for it, therefore several of them put on their dusts and took their valises in hand and made a break for the train. After being apprehended by friends they were shown the error of their way and returned looking toward the ground and feeling ashamed, ashamed.

All the offers of land for the site of the City Auditorium will be opened by the committee of the Board of Aldermen on Monday at 12 o'clock. Several proposals are already in and it is hoped that all parties having available sites will offer them to the city at a reasonable price. The Board of Aldermen have decided to build the auditorium, and want to begin work at the earliest moment so as to be ready for the Exposition. President Harrison has been invited to visit the Exposition and he is quite certain to accept the invitation, and there will be no where for him to speak to the vast crowd except this auditorium be built by that time.

Simmons Liver Regulator is the foe of malaria as it throws off the bile and prevents its accumulating.

GREATEST YET SEEN.

That was the Verdict of the Multitude That Saw Swindell's Sale.

Probably the greatest sale of merchandise that ever took place in Raleigh in one day happened on Friday last.

It has just come under the CHRONICLE'S notice that the huge store-room of the Swindell Backet was filled to overflowing over thirty times on that day and still many purchasers were turned away.

It had been advertised about the special sale of spring clothes and Mr. Swindell thought he was ready for the rush. The rush took him at ten o'clock while he was innocently seated in his big arm chair fixing up his bank deposit.

Ten minutes was the least time in which he could reach the door, having to press through a crowd that got behind his counters, stood shoulder to shoulder on the stairways and fairly bamboozled the clerks. Getting upon a counter, he cried that the sale was suspended.

Five policemen were called in to clear the building, and then a certain number were let in to purchase at a time. The rest stood in the street in the rain, on the corner of Wilmington and Martin streets, for a block, and insuring for room.

Mr. Swindell estimated that some 100,000 people visited the store that day and next sale is on Friday.

Mr. Watt's Serious Condition.

Just before the CHRONICLE went to press last night a reporter called at the residence of Mr. D. S. Watt on Hargett street to ascertain his true condition. The sad intelligence came that his was almost a hopeless condition and that his physicians could give his friends little consolation.

For the Next Thirty Days. I have just added quite a handsome lot of new work to my already large stock of finished work in garments and tombstones, and will for the next thirty days, sell any finished work on yard at 10 per cent below regular price.

The rain for the past week has interfered with the sale of hats somewhat but they have been going all the same. Seawell Heights is the most popular suburb spot around this city, the view from there as you look back to the city is lovely. A gentleman from Knoxville and another from Greensboro saw these lots this week, and were charmed. They both declared they had never seen such beautiful lots at anything approaching their price. They are cheap, just about half the price you would expect to be charged for them. If you buy now you can have a home on Seawell Heights in the beautiful northeast suburb of our city at a very small price on terms to suit you. J. M. BROUGHTON & Co., Agts. may30-31.

The Grandest Success of its Kind Ever Known in Raleigh. To say the big special sale at Swindell's last Friday was a grand success, would but mildly express it. The sale was advertised to begin at 10 o'clock but long before that hour the vast crowd began to assemble, and a few minutes past 10 o'clock the entire store was completely blocked with people from the country and the city, both young and old. By this time the crowd was so great the store being literally packed and jammed, rendered it utterly impossible for us to wait on the trade. The only thing left for us to do was to ask part of the crowd to retire so the sale could go on. We regret very much being compelled to call in officers to assist in clearing out some of the crowd, but it would have been utterly impossible for us to have waited on any one had the entire crowd remained in the store. We sincerely hope that all who retired will thoroughly understand and appreciate our situation, it was not our intention to offend any one. Our next special sale will be next Friday, June 5th. On that day we will place on sale a big lot of caps and misses hose, No. 6 to 9 1/2, at 10 cents a pair. These goods are slightly imperfect, but are richly worth 25 cents a pair. We will not sell more than 6 pair to each customer.

Yours truly, D. T. SWINDELL.

The E. B. Cladin Co's Big Fire.

All newspaper readers will remember reading a short time ago of a big fire in the E. B. Cladin Company's immense store in New York, causing an actual loss of wired him that as soon as the Insurance Adjusters were through there would be big bargains in the market. He was advised to use his discretion and the result is highly satisfactory to me, as I think will be to my patrons. We were among the

One Hundred Thousand Dollars.

The regular buyer for

at this slaughter sale, and secured

—FIRST CHOICE—

of the most desirable goods offered, and propose giving our customers the advantage we obtained. The majority of these goods you would never know had been through a fire, unless told so, or on account of
